

VoIP Service Terms

In this document wor(l)d is introducing the VoIP Services Terms on a trial basis and reserves the right to amend or withdraw it at any time at its sole discretion and for any reason without prior notice.

The VoIP Services Terms does not require the customer to enter into a contract, but the customer must accept and agree with these terms and conditions.

wor(l)d reserves the right, at any time and at its sole discretion, to modify, delete, amend or suspend the terms and conditions of the VoIP Service Terms without prior notice.

wor(l)d can modify its contents and its requirements at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice.

The VoIP Services Terms is subject to the Terms of Fair Use policy for the VoIP Services Terms and VoIP Service Plan Unlimited (see below), and all calls are subject to a maximum call length of 60 minutes. The amount of calls made not to exceed a reasonable amount per day and the number of different numbers called cannot exceed twenty (20).

This document regulates the general characteristics of the VoIP Services rates as described below. These terms should be read together with wor(l)d's Terms of Service, Policies and Procedures which also applies to this program.

The VoIP Services is intended for individual consumer use and is not to be shared by any other users.

The VoIP Services may be active on the Space Voip app that the customer must configure on a single account on the application for a PC, Win/Mac, Smartphone, ATA device, tablet or Space Computer.

The account must not have gateway functions and cannot be used as a proxy of termination to the destinations listed in the program.

The list of countries included in the VoIP Services will may be available at the Official Site and is subject to the VoIP Services Use policy. The customer agrees that these countries may change without prior notice.

In the VoIP Services and in the use of VoIP Services Plan Unlimited, it's absolutely forbidden to use, install and add applications, robot or any other kind of automated systems or mechanisms that, directly or indirectly, generate abnormal or contrary behaviors to good and correct use of the program.

At the same time, the behaviors that follow up the contrary goals and do not conform to the appropriate and personal use of program are prohibited.

In this sense, the customer undertakes to indemnify wor(l)d by the damages caused for incorrect program usage and recognizes that wor(l)d will not return any amount to him.
